THE TREES, 4 DRUMFEARN, ISLE OF SKYE IV43 8QZ

Ellis O'Connor is a Contemporary Landscape Artist from Scotland working in the field of painting. The dynamic energy to be seen in the paintings are Ellis' response to observed changes in the landscape; 'the movement and rhythms of the sea and the land... the merging of sea with air, advancing rain and mist, ever changing light - elements that seem to be about something intangible.'

Visit the workshop to view a selection of original paintings and prints.

Drive through the township of Drumfearn. Just before you get to the end of the road, you take a left turn, go up the hill and you take the second left turn down the track with 4 Drumfearn. Go down track and my house is the middle one. Park in front of my blue van.

OPEN: BY APPOINTMENT ONLY.

Our Art Skye booklet has been in existence now for over 18 years, and in that time we've sadly lost some true creative talents. To mark their passing we've reproduced some of their memorable work which has appeared in this publication over the years.
